Redirect Your Taxes to Fund a Scholarship. At No Extra Cost to You.

Lower your withholding. Raise your take-home pay. Give it monthly.

$1,571 a year ≈ $131 a month ≈ $4.30 a day

2026 credit limits: up to $1,571 for single filers · up to $3,131 for married filing jointly

THE PROBLEM

You want to help a family pay private school tuition for their child. But to earn the Arizona tax credit, you have to donate cash, and by the end of the month there's often nothing left to give.

THE SOLUTION

Turn part of your state tax withholding into a monthly donation:

1

Lower Your Withholding

Fill out Arizona Form A-4, choose a lower withholding percentage, and give it to your employer.

2

Watch Your Paycheck Grow

Less state tax is withheld, so your take-home pay goes up.

3

Give Monthly

Use that extra money to set up a recurring monthly donation to Scholarkids. You'll get an instant receipt every time.

4

Claim Your Credit

When you file your Arizona return, your donations count as a dollar-for-dollar tax credit, up to the annual limit.

Important

Make sure your monthly donations continue. Your Scholarkids contribution is what offsets the lower withholding. If you stop donating, you may owe Arizona tax when you file.

MORE IN YOUR PAYCHECK. NO EXTRA TAX. A CHILD'S FUTURE, CHANGED.
